"Don't drink and go to meetings"

A drunk was experiencing some marital tension at home. Naturally he went to the bar to find a solution. At the pub, he complained to another buddy. In the course of their conversation, he friend declared, "You know, I think God speaks to us through our spouses."

The drunk considered the statement, shook his head in amazement, and said "Wow. I didn't know God used that kind of language."

HEARD AT MEETINGS ...

"I don't know what I want, but I want a lot of it."

"If I could drink normally I'd be drunk all the time."

AA DEFINITIONS ...

Hangover – the moaning after the night before;
Alcoholic – A person who puts thirst things first.

Many thanks to the Grapevine for the humour posted above.
